2. Adult Education Information (Attachment A1)
Objective: To better understand the OPL's role in adult education and literacy, learn how this program has functioned during the pandemic and what is planned for the year ahead, and identify possible gaps in existing resources. This information will be useful in communicating with stakeholders about the value of the OPL and opportunities for library investments to support Oakland's post-pandemic economic recovery.
3. Library Finances Report Information (Attachments B & C)
Objective: To equip Commissioners with the latest OPL budget information for use in elected and community engagement, to understand the impacts of the Mayor's proposed budget on library spending, and to identify options for increased library spending.
