 - ii. A picture ID matching the information in the patron record above
 - iii. Proof of residency or residential property ownership in the cities of Oakland, Piedmont or Emeryville
 - iv. Sign a waiver

R. Patron Confidentiality

- Except to comply with applicable laws, valid legal process, or to protect the rights or property of the City of Oakland, Oakland Public Library will not disclose any information from the patron record to unauthorized individuals or to other agencies or organizations.
- Parents or legal guardians may be given information related to fines and fees on their child’s (under age 13) record; but other information will not be disclosed except as above.
- All library card applications will be shredded after the patron information has been entered and verified.

II. Borrowing – Describes item types and limits, loan periods, holds, and renewals.

- A. All persons wishing to borrow Oakland Public Library (OPL) items must have an active patron record.
- B. After verifying identity or providing library card, patrons may borrow items from the library.
- C. Borrowing limits are as follows (exceptions noted in II.D):

Maximum number of items checked out at one time	50
Maximum number of holds at one time	15
Loan Period	3 weeks
Maximum number of renewals (Items cannot be renewed if another patron has placed a hold)	3 renewals

D. Exceptions to borrowing limits listed in II.C:

Test Prep Books	One week check out
Tool Lending Library (TLL)	7 day check out; 8 item limit; No renewals for select tools
Video Games	2 item limit; No renewals
Toys	2 item limit

LINK+ /ILL	Some renewal restrictions may apply. Call 510-238-2124
In-house use only	Do not check out (i.e. Reference/OHR/AAMLO/laptops)
E-materials	Check out period varies by platform; No renewals

Extended Services Patrons	Double the standard loan period
Teacher Card	Double the standard loan period

E. Holds

- Patrons may place holds online or by request to library staff.
- Patrons with fines or fees exceeding $50 cannot place holds.
- Patrons may change the pickup location of an existing hold request, either online or by requesting such a change from library staff, until the hold has been filled.
- Holds for tools at the Tool Lending Library must be placed by library staff.

F. LINK+

- Patrons may place holds from other library systems that participate in the Link+ consortium if an item is not currently available from OPL.
- Reference items and music CDs may not be requested through LINK+.
- Teacher Cards are not eligible for LINK+ borrowing.

G. Interlibrary Loan

- Patrons may request books or periodical articles that are not owned by OPL or available through Link+ through Interlibrary Loan (ILL). An ILL request must be made in person.
- Teacher Cards are not eligible for ILL borrowing.

H. "Library Use Only" materials

- Some items may not be checked out and must be used at the library during open hours; such items may include laptops, tablets and bike locks.
- Reference materials, including the collections in the Oakland History Room (OHR) and African-American Museum and Library (AAMLO) are for library use only.

I. Returning Library Materials

- Most circulating Library items may be returned to any branch of the Oakland Public Library either inside the library or in exterior book drops.
- Tools, ILL materials and other items needing special care must be returned inside the library to the owning branch during open hours.
- Items should not be returned to a book drop that is too full as theft or damage may occur.
- Oakland Public Library items should not be returned to another library system. If this occurs, overdue fines will be assessed on the date the item is returned to OPL, should it be recovered from another system.

J. Loss of Borrowing Privileges - The following conditions "block" a patron record and prevent borrowing:

- Exceeding fines and/or fees of $50.
- Suspension of library privileges due to violation of the OPL "Guidelines for Behavior".
- Expired patron record.

III. Fines and Fees – Describes the charges for borrowing

- A. Replacement fees are assessed if materials are not returned to the library or are damaged beyond use.
- Once an item is 30 days overdue, it is determined to be “lost” and a replacement fee is assessed.
 - If an item is returned to the library after a replacement fee has been assessed, the replacement fee will be eliminated. Overdue charges may apply as noted in III.B.
- B. Overdue fines are assessed on Tools if they are returned late.
- Tools must be returned to OPL by the date the item is due to avoid overdue fines.
 - Overdue fines are not assessed on closed days or holidays.
 - Overdue fines do not continue to accrue once the maximum fine for an individual item is reached.
 - No refunds will be issued following payment of fines or fees unless a charge was assessed by library staff in error.
 - Overdue fines are $1-$5 dollars per day for Tools
- C. Payment of fines and fees
- Fines and fees may be paid by cash, check or online.
 - No refunds will be issued following payment of fines or fees unless a charge was assessed by library staff in error.
 - Patrons are encouraged to search carefully for unreturned materials before paying a replacement fee. If an item is found in patron’s possession after payment occurs, the patron is entitled to keep the item. No refunds will be issued.
- D. Library Materials Damaged or Lost in Disasters
- Fees for library materials lost or damaged in natural or personal disasters may be waived if a patron provides proof of cause, such as, but not limited to:
 - copy of insurance claim (property damage or vehicle theft)*
 - police report (theft)*
 - verification of address within the area of a large-scale disaster (e.g. the Oakland Hills Fire)*
 - other evidence as approved by library staff in charge*
